Dear Mr. Huffaker:

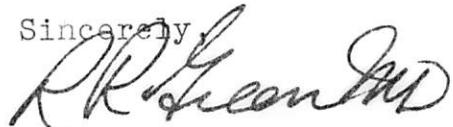

I understand that you are a grandson of Wilford VanWagoner who helped operate the Bsp. David VanWagoner Store on the southwest corner of the present town square of Midway, Utah.

By any chance, do you have a picture of that store, or could you describe it.

I am so anxious to find a copy of a picture of that store.

We are trying to find a picture of all the Midway Post Offices and it was the first Post Office in Midway.

Sincerely

R. Raymond Green, M.D.

RRG/lsd

We would be happy to make a copy of the picture & return the original to you.

Dear Dr. Green:

I apologize for the delay in answering your letters requesting a picture of the David Van Wagener store in Midway, Utah. My wife and I are serving a mission in New York and my mail seems to be held and forwarded in bunches. I would like to assist you in any way that I can and will be glad to turn over to you whatever pictures or descriptions that we have.

I do remember well in going through my mother's (Bessie Van Wagener) ^{album} a picture of him standing in front of the store you mention in your letter. The album is in storage at our home in Salt Lake, and if I were there I would send it immediately. We will be home shortly after Christmas, and if that is too late, I could make an effort to have another find it.

Please let me know, and if necessary, it is possible that I could have my son find the album and have you go through it whenever you are in Salt Lake.

My best wishes to you and the most interesting project.

Orton Haffaker

P.S. If you know Wilburn Huffaker give him my regards.
